Prayer ministry is available in the chapel following both services.

When praying for this church and our city on Wednesday morning we were struck by the need for everyone in the church to have our eyes and ears open to what God's wants to say and do and all felt we should start with ourselves.

We would love you to join with us to pray on a Wednesday morning, however we are aware that for many this is not possible. Today's prayer focus includes some of the pointers that we've been using to focus our prayers. Please use them to focus your own prayers this week, on our city, across the world and with yourself.

Pray for the great need of all the people who do not know Jesus, who are empty and broken.

Pray that we will have compassion for those around us.

Pray that we can serve God in the way he asks us.

Pray for people to have jobs, houses and good relationships.

Pray for people to have purpose in their lives.

Pray that we as the church can be a beacon of light and hope in this dark world.

Thank God that he has already won and help us to fight the fight alongside Him.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty,
Creator of Heaven and earth
And in Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord
Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary
Suffered under Pontius Pilate
Was crucified, died and was buried
He descended into hell
On the third day He rose again from the dead
He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty
From there he will come to judge the living and the dead
I believe in the Holy Spirit
The Holy catholic Church
The communion of Saints
The forgiveness of sins
The resurrection of the body
And life everlasting

Amen

Please pray for the Action Team who arrived in Kosovo yesterday. Pray for them as they settle into a new culture, begin to meet those they will be working with and learn some language basics.

A huge thank you to everyone who welcomed them at QRBC with hospitality, food, friendship, transport etc. They really appreciated it and thought Queens Road was a great place to be!

REQUEST FOR HELP

We are seeking to support a local school for children with special needs. They recently suffered a fire which took out three classrooms and the corridor that connects them, and everything was lost. While the insurance claim is sorted out, they have an urgent need for the following items (suitable for 4-6 years): books, toys like Lego, Duplo, threading, maths games, jigsaws, dolls, teddies. Also wellies, waterproofs, spare clothes and pants. Items should be brought to the church office, please.

WHITE POPPIES FOR PEACE are available again this year from Alan Betteridge. 50p each (surplus monies will go to Save the Children, helping those who are the innocent victims of war since 1919)

DEACON ELECTION

We are pleased to announce that Iain Colville has been elected to serve as a deacon until the AGM in 2018.

COVENTRY STREET PASTORS

Following the presentation at the church members meeting, if anyone is interested in volunteering or would like to find out more, please contact the church office.

THANK YOU

I would like to thank all the people who have supported me over the last 10 months with prayers, cards, letters and flowers, they have been a big comfort to me and helped me through a very difficult time. I am well now and on the road to good recovery. There are many wonderful and caring people at Queens Road and I would like to thank you all.
